CLAIRVOYANT

1959 - 1960

Dedication

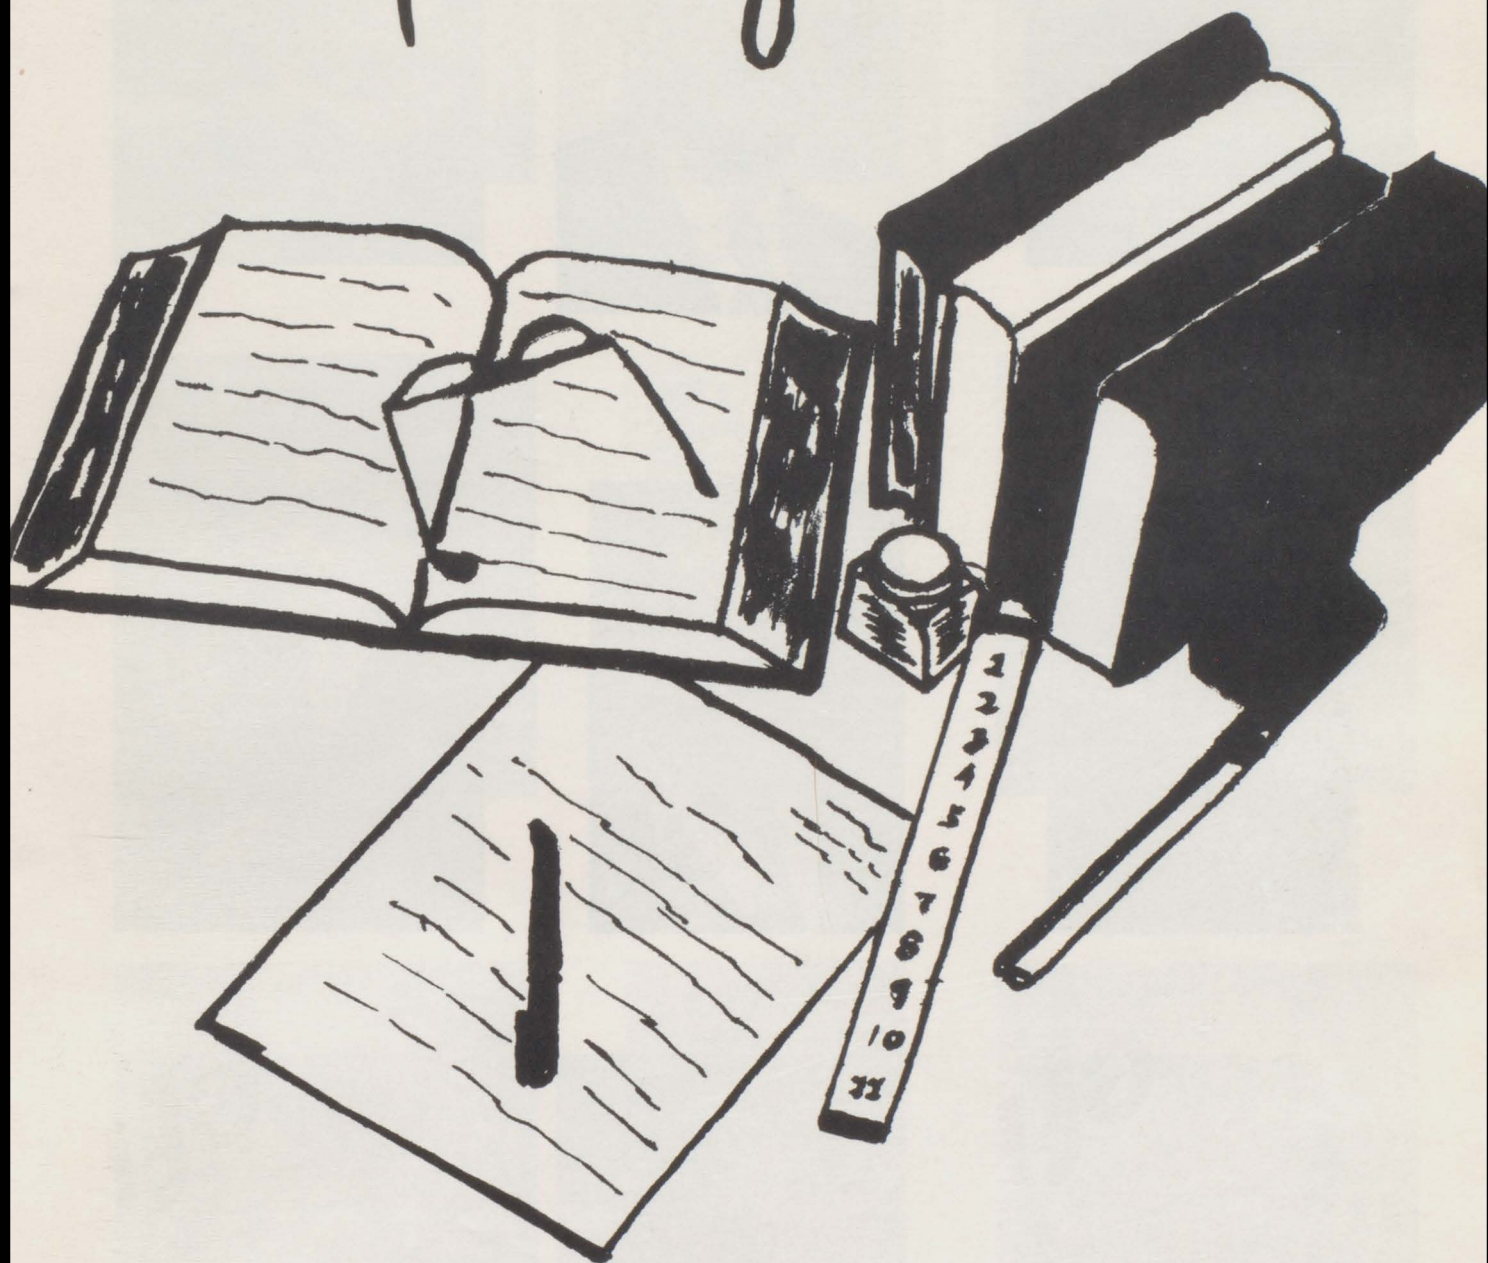

We the students are proud to dedicate this 1960 Clairvoyant to you, Beulah Logsdon, for the years of devoted service you have so faithfully given to St. Clair High Students.

Mrs. Logsdon has been the advisor of many of the classes and has helped a great many students through English and Latin. On behalf of all those students we Thank You.

Through your faithful service and devoted work for the students of St. Clair High we are truly proud of you. It is with great honor that we dedicate this 1960 Clairvoyant to you Mrs. Beulah Logsdon.

Such arguments: Lee, Connie, and Joan.

Don't be mad at Lee, Connie.

The Junior Play of 1959 was put on by this year's senior class. Both students and town's people enjoyed the hilarious three-act play. Who could help but laugh at the superb acting by the industrious cast. Many thanks again went to Miss Travis for Directing the play, and Kay Taylor, Student Director.

Troubles, troubles for Joan, Connie and Barb.

Lovers quarrel for Joan and Pete.

None of that Joan and Dan.

Stag Line

Shevy Calnan

Sandra Marks

The Senior play, Stag Line, went over with a big success. The lead was taken by Shevawn Calnan, followed up by a fabulous cast.

Much more goes into a play besides the cast. The play was a success because of the many people who worked back stage to make it so.

Of course, no play at S.C.H.S. could be a success without the help of Miss Travis, our director. Julieann Yeip was her helper as student director.

Mr. Watt's "F" hour Speech class presented one of the most outstanding assemblies of the year during the activity period on Thursday, May 10. The play was a very dramatic comedy in satirical form of an old-fashioned school room. All of the characters were dressed in brightly colored costumes and talked as students in grade school.

The characters were as follows: Mary Bronson: Sandra Marks; Mrs. Porter: Ann Burkhart; Mr. Porter: Alex Drabant; Clarissa: Connie Boulrier; Butch Callahan: Joe Posey; Tubby Fink: Paul Pawlosky; Mayberry Flutter: Chuck Loznak; Flash Graham: Bob Ozzie; Pewee Reis: John Wagner; Midge Reis: Jim Mulitner; Otto Schmidt: Ken Rands; Marigold Talbot: Glen Galloway; Tessie Talent: Sue Barshaw; and Hildegard LaVerne: Bill Ballantine.

Miss Linda Robbins,
Senior Attendant

Miss Shevawn Calnan,
Queen

Miss Vicki Phillips,
Junior Attendant

Miss Virginia Cremers,
Junior Attendant

Miss Sue Boulier,
Sophomore Attendant

Preceding the actual homecoming, a committee of many high school seniors and alumni planned to make it a success. Besides the 1960 court and queen, there were many queens from years before. Some senior girls played the parts of the queens from the roaring 20's and rode in a jeep along with the rest of the actual queens from 1949-1958 in beautiful cars. Miss Shevawn Calnan, the queen, was crowned by John Preston, a senior football player, and the local jeweler, donated a watch for the queen.

Miss Kathy Wills,
Freshman Attendant

May Dance

KING--Fred Shaw and QUEEN--Joan Potter.

"Smile Pretty Gang"

Walt Parsons, Barbara Kuhn, Diane Beauvais, and Marvin Hervert.

Joan Potter, Joe Kindsvater, Kathy Wills, and Chuck Eggers.

The May Dance, sponsored by the freshman class, was May 6th. About one hundred people attended the annual affair. Connie Boulier, Linda Cascadden, and Joan Potter were candidates for QUEEN. Ted Oles, John Preston, and Fred Shaw were candidates for KING. Joan Potter was named QUEEN and Fred Shaw KING.

Rod Harris, Tom Banning, and Tom Barron acted as disc jockeys at the dance.

Runner's up--John Preston, Linda Cascadden, Connie Boulier, and Ted Oles.

Dave Blanchard, Carol Figley, Ruth Ann Ross, and Fred Shaw.

Disc Jockeys, Rod, Tom, and Tom.

Junior-Senior Banquet

The brain trust: Mr. Robert McIntosh, Guest Speaker; Miss Kay Bengston, Mistress of Ceremonies; Lee Emig, Senior Class President; Richard Rudzinski, Junior Class President.

Look at that food! Mr. and Mrs. Stablein.

Here we are boys! Louise, Joan, Ruth, Ann, Connie, and Joyce.

You lucky girls! Tom, Fred, Lawry, Ted, and Dick.

Chow time.

Now this is the way it really happened.

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held on Tuesday, May 17th at Sid's on the St. Clair River in Algonac. The group was treated to an eight course chicken dinner. There was dancing afterwards.

"Ain't love grand?"

"Time out."

Senior

"Let's dance."

Prom

"Liven' it up."

"Oh, how we danced!"

It's a rough ride on that train: Ken, Joe, and Dick.

The seniors left on their trip, Sunday, May 8, 1960, in the pouring rain. Monday morning, they arrived in Washington, D.C. after an all night ride on the train. The week was spent seeing all the sights in Washington. At the night club, the seniors saw Frankie Avalon perform, and everyone enjoyed the moonlight cruise. The seniors left for home Thursday, May 12, and arrived in St. Clair, Friday morning.

Smile pretty: Ruth, Louise, Connie, and Ann Marie!

Wowie!!: Joan and Ruth

What a blast: Linda R., Linda D., Barb, Joyce, Gayle, and Betty.

Taste Pretty Good-George, Sue, and Steve.

Whose in charge of us? Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Bohs.

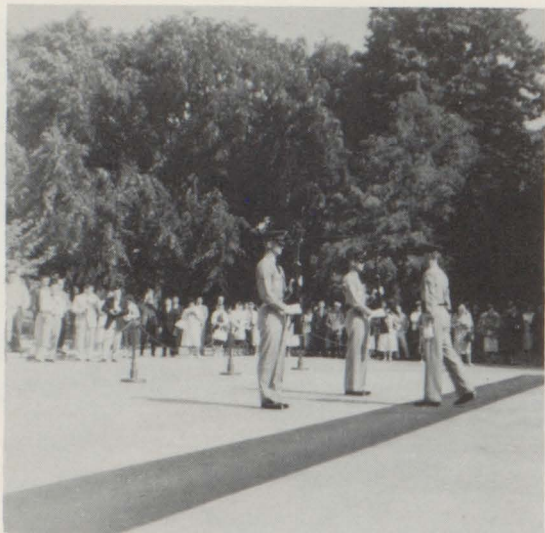

What a trip!: Barb, Liz, Connie, Marilyn, Louise, Joan, Sandra, Ruth, and Ann Marie.

Senior Trip

Senior Trip

While the seniors were in Washington, they saw many famous monuments including the ones pictured here.

Football

This years football team was hampered by injuries and inexperience, with mostly sophomores and juniors and only five seniors returning to the squad.

The first two games were probably our greatest loss because in those games the fellows lost a lot of spirit, but they never lost their will to win. It takes a lot of courage to stay with a losing team; next year we hope it to be different.

The St. Clair Varsity Basketball team of 1959-1960 were victorious in 14 consecutive league games. This feat has never been matched in the history of the St. Clair area league.

Splendid teamwork, a compelling desire to win, and hustle were the keys to the Saints big success.

This year's squad will go down in history as one of the best teams that the blue water area has ever seen.
